SOFITEL ROME

VILLA BORGHESE

Redesigned by architect Jean Philippe Nuel, Sofitel Rome mixes heritage and modernism offering the pleasures of a quiet retreat steeped in history, in the heart of the Eternal City.

Situated in a former 19th century Roman palazzo, our five stars boutique hotel lies on a quaint street in the city center, just a few steps away from iconic landmarks such as Villa Medici, Spanish Steps and Trevi Fountain. Combining Italian and French artistic cultures, the hotel is itself a complete work of art, inspired by the adjacent Villa Borghese.

LOBBY

A QUIET PLACE WITH A CLASSIC SPIRIT

The hotel common area features an iconic display of chromatic counterpoints and vibrant colours, creating a modern lounge with a classical feel. The lobby's floor can be considered an artwork itself, composed of contrasting marble that hints directly to Italian heritage. Commons relax areas are separated into distinct spaces that encourage intimate conversation and inspire admiration of the surrounding décor.

- WELCOME & LOBBY ROOM
- RELAX AREAS

“The iconic chandelier that hangs above the reception desk and the striking glass-and-mirrored encased lobby bar double as contemporary sculpture and create a unique design identity.”
