UNFORGETTABLE STORIES

*When you reach the top of the hill, you will see Bodrum.
Don't assume that you will leave as you came.
The others before you were the same too,
As they departed, they all left their souls behind.*

BODRUM

Bodrum district, which Homer refers to as “the land of eternal blues”, is one of the most touristic holiday destinations not only in Turkey but also in the world, with its unique nature containing all shades of green and blue. This magical town, known for its comfortable and luxurious venues and its colorful internationally renowned nightlife is rich in history and culture dating back to ancient times.

YALIKAVAK

Known well for its magical landscapes that adorn postcards, Yalıkavak Town welcomes thousands of holiday makers from many countries around the world every year. With a history of over 2500 years, this adorable town that houses some of Bodrum’s iconic windmills, is also known for its shopping centers and the country’s most luxurious marina that is home to top international brands.
